

The first massive collaboration resource for tourism finance.

Introducing the network you need to market and facilitate tourism/hospitality finance.

TourismROI has brought together government officials, business operators, investors and developers in more than 12,000 destinations around the world, allowing them to network and exchange information in one convenient online location.

Tourism industry investment is the nucleus of this online community, allowing you to market and secure financial business targeted at destinations, business operators, investors and more. With TourismROI, you can:

- Communicate in real time with customers, colleagues, government officials and industry partners, keeping them informed of new developments, financings and service offerings.
- Register your finance organization so potential customers and industry colleagues can learn about your business and its services.
- Generate automated alerts to interested parties watching your business.
- Purchase targeted advertising based on industry sector, geographic area and type of products/services.

Register free online to join the world's largest and most comprehensive network for tourism finance.

TOURISM | ROI

TourismROI.com